ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The authors would like to thank Ms. AradhanaJohri, Additional Secretary, NACO, Government of India; Ms. K. SujataRao, former Secretary, Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India; Ms. GirijaVaidyanathan, Principal Secretary, Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Tamil Nadu; and the former directors, Mr. K. Deenabandhu, Dr. S. Vijaykumar and Ms. SupriyaSahu, of TANSACS; all of whom we consulted for their insights into the role of APAC in India's HIV/AIDS program. We also thank Mr. Pankaj Kumar Bansal, Project Director of the Tamil Nadu Health System Project, for highlighting the systems developed and contributions made by APAC to TNHSP; as well as Dr. E.S. Krishnamoorthy, Honorable Secretary, VHS, and Ms. JayashreeMuralidharan, District Collector, Trichirappalli, and RekaMasilamani.

We would also like to thank the leaders and staff of all the institutions we visited: the DAPCU and TSU directors and their staff; private sector company representatives; the NGOs and CBOs working in the field; and the health care providers, peer educators, community members and other staff working on HIV/AIDS prevention and care. We were privileged to work with you.

The authors also wish to thank the members of the APAC team, led by Dr. Bimal Charles, Project Director, for their guidance and continuing support during our visit and subsequent writing of this report. We are also appreciative of the support provided by the APAC Division Directors, Program Managers and staff both in Tamil Nadu and Kerala. We also thank Arvind Kumar at USAID and Carolyn Moore from GH Tech for their guidance and support during the development of this report.
